Introduction

January 14, 2018 Second Sunday of Epiphany-Year B

All the baptized have a calling in God's world. God calls not just the clergy but also the youngest child, like Samuel. The story of the calling of Nathanael plays with the idea of place. Nathanael initially dismisses Jesus because he comes from Nazareth. But where we come from isn't important; it's where—or rather whom—we come to. Jesus refers to the story of the vision of Jacob, who called the place of his vision "the house of God, and . . . the gate of heaven" (Gen. 28:17). Jesus says he himself is the place where Nathanael will meet God

All are welcome to the Lord's Table:

All are welcome to receive communion. We trust Christ's living presence is with us as he promised. Please open your hands to receive the elements. A common response after receiving them is Amen. If you are not receiving communion you may come forward and ask for a blessing. Both wine and grape juice are available. The grape juice is offered in the center ring of the tray. Gluten-free bread is also offered. Please let Pastor know your preference when you are served.

LARGE PRINT BULLETINS AVAILABLE

Children's Bulletins are available.

Hearing Assisting Devices are available for those having difficulties in hearing at worship. Ask the sound operator for a device to use.

Please turn off your cell phones during worship!

No food or drink in Sanctuary. Thank You.

Welcome and Announcements

The Gathering

(Stand)

The Peace

Pastor: The peace of Christ be with you always.

People: And also with you.

(All worshipers are encouraged to greet those around them with the above greeting.)

Confession and Forgiveness

Pastor: Blessed be the holy Trinity, † one God, who stretches out the heavens, who sends light to the nations, who gives breath to us all.

People: Amen.

Pastor: Let us confess our sin in the presence of one another.

Silence is kept for reflection.

Pastor: Loving God,

People: we confess that we have turned from your way to follow our own ways. Forgive us for the times we have spoken or acted too quickly; we have not spoken or acted at all; we have hurt those closest to us; we have hurt those we have yet to know; we have thought more about ourselves than others; we have thought less of ourselves than we ought. Turn us around, and give us a fresh start, so that we can live again as your children. Amen.

Pastor: Even when we have done wrong, God makes us right. Even when we have messed up, God puts us together. God's love never runs out. God never tires of calling us beloved children. Hear God say to you now: Your sins are forgiven, for the sake of † Jesus Christ our Savior.

People: Amen.

First Lesson (Sit)

1 Samuel 3:1-10 (NRSV)

¹Now the boy Samuel was ministering to the LORD under Eli. The word of the LORD was rare in those days; visions were not widespread.

²At that time Eli, whose eyesight had begun to grow dim so that he could not see, was lying down in his room; ³the lamp of God had not yet gone out, and Samuel was lying down in the temple of the LORD, where the ark of God was. ⁴Then the LORD called, "Samuel! Samuel!" and he said, "Here I am!" ⁵and ran to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." But he said, "I did not call; lie down again." So he went and lay down. ⁶The LORD called again, "Samuel!" Samuel got up and went to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." But he said, "I did not call, my son; lie down again." ⁷Now Samuel did not yet know the LORD, and the word of the LORD had not yet been revealed to him. ⁸The LORD called Samuel again, a third time. And he got up and went to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." Then Eli perceived that the LORD was calling the boy. ⁹Therefore Eli said to Samuel, "Go, lie down; and if he calls you, you shall say, 'Speak, LORD, for your servant is listening.'" So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

¹⁰Now the LORD came and stood there, calling as before, "Samuel! Samuel!" And Samuel said, "Speak, for your servant is listening."

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Anthem (10:30am)

Junior Praise Band

Second Lesson

1 Corinthians 6:12-20 (NRSV)

¹²"All things are lawful for me," but not all things are beneficial. "All things are lawful for me," but I will not be dominated by anything. ¹³"Food is meant for the stomach and the stomach for food," and God will destroy both one and the other. The body is meant not for fornication but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body. ¹⁴And God raised the Lord and will also raise us by his power. ¹⁵Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Should I therefore take the members of Christ and make them members of a prostitute? Never! ¹⁶Do you not know that whoever is united to a prostitute becomes one body with her? For it is said, "The two shall be one flesh." ¹⁷But anyone united to the Lord becomes one spirit with him. ¹⁸Shun fornication! Every sin that a person commits is outside the body; but the fornicator sins against the body itself. ¹⁹Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, which you have from God, and that you are not your own? ²⁰For you were bought with a price; therefore glorify God in your body.

Reader: The Word of the Lord. People: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation (Stand)

p. 124

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia,
al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia. Repeat alleluia
Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of e - ter - nal life.

Pastor: The Holy Gospel according to St. John the 1st chapter.

People: Glory to you, O Lord.

The Gospel

John 1:43-51 (NRSV)

⁴³The next day Jesus decided to go to Galilee. He found Philip and said to him, "Follow me." ⁴⁴Now Philip was from Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter. ⁴⁵Philip found Nathanael and said to him, "We have found him about whom Moses in the law and also the prophets wrote, Jesus son of Joseph from Nazareth." ⁴⁶Nathanael said to him, "Can anything good come out of Nazareth?" Philip said to him, "Come and see." ⁴⁷When Jesus saw Nathanael coming toward him, he said of him, "Here is truly an Israelite in whom there is no deceit!" ⁴⁸Nathanael asked him, "Where did you get to know me?" Jesus answered, "I saw you under the fig tree before Philip called you." ⁴⁹Nathanael replied, "Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel!" ⁵⁰Jesus answered, "Do you believe because I told you that I saw you under the fig tree? You will see greater things than these." ⁵¹And he said to him, "Very truly, I tell you, you will see heaven opened and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of Man."

Pastor: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, O Christ.

Hymn of the Day # 574

"Here I Am, Lord!"

Apostles' Creed

Assistant: Let us stand and profess our faith in Christ Jesus, reject sin, and confess the faith of the church, using the Apostles' Creed.

All: I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Prayers of the Church

Assistant: Confident that God our light and our salvation hears us when we pray, let us offer our prayers for the church, the world, and all people in need.

A brief silence.

Assistant: For the church throughout the world and for all called to its various ministries, that the Holy Spirit invite us and others to "come and see," let us pray.

People: Have mercy, O God.

Assistant: For the well-being of creation, for plants that provide nourishment, for animals that tend their young, that your goodness will be revealed through all creation, let us pray.

People: Have mercy, O God.

Assistant: For the nations and all in authority, for advocates, for those who work for racial justice, and for our community, that all people may thrive together in harmony and order, let us pray.

People: Have mercy, O God.

Assistant: We ask your blessings upon the following members of the St. Barnabas family: Dave, Susan, Melanie & Abby Hostman. Jim, Dana & Madeline DeMars. Gina Cafferata. Andy Dornfeld. Keith & Ellen Flugge. Let us pray.

People: Have mercy, O God.

Assistant: For travelers and those unable to attend worship today, for members of our community celebrating special events, and for those who request prayers, let us pray.

People: Have mercy, O God.

Assistant: For all who are oppressed; for those who suffer in body, mind, or spirit (especially those we name silently or aloud); for caregivers and families; for those who grieve and cannot sleep, that comfort will come to those in any distress, let us pray.

People: Have mercy, O God.

Please offer your own prayers of thanks or concern, ending with "Let us pray."

Assistant: In thanksgiving for those who followed Christ and now rest from their labors, that their witness provide a model of prophetic leadership and tireless justice-making, let us pray.

People: Have mercy, O God.

Pastor: Merciful God, you hear our prayers even before we speak them. Receive them for the sake of the one through whom you have revealed your goodness, Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.

People: Amen.

The Offering (Sit)

Offering Hymn # 388 (Stand) "Be Not Afraid"

Be not afraid, sing out for joy! Christ is risen, alleluia! Be not afraid, sing out with joy! Christ is risen, alleluia!

Offering Prayer

Assistant: Let us pray:

People: merciful God, receive the gifts we bring, ourselves, our time, and our possessions. Through this meal unite us as your body, shining with the light of your justice and mercy; for the sake of him who gave himself for us, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Pastor: The Lord be with you. People: And also with you.

Pastor: Lift up your hearts. People: We lift them to the Lord.

Pastor: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Pastor: It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks and praise. . . .we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow-er and might, heav-en and earth are full of your glo-ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless-ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Pastor: Holy One, the beginning and the end, the giver of life: Blessed are you for the birth of creation. Blessed are you in the darkness and in the light. Blessed are you for your promise to your people. Blessed are you in the prophets' hopes and dreams. Blessed are you for Mary's openness to your will. Blessed are you for your Son Jesus, the Word made flesh.

In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Holy God, we long for your Spirit. Come among us. Bless this meal. May your Word take flesh in us. Awaken your people. Fill us with your light. Bring the gift of peace on earth.

Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
 Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses,

as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.
